PSALMS 25:4-5

PSALMS 25

- Written by David, as a young man he was famous for being a giant slayer, a national hero who ultimately was king of all Israel.
- David - 'is a man after God's heart' 1Sam.13:14, Acts 13:22
- Yet his life was not exactly smooth sailing.
- He was lonely and afflicted v16; troubled, in anguish v17; distressed & sin-conscious v18; troubled by his many enemies v19
- In this troubled state, hear the cry of David's heart as he turned to God and declared, "MY HOPE IS IN YOU!"

Show me your ways O LORD,
teach me Your paths;
guide me in Your truth and teach me,
for You are God my Savior,
and my hope is in You all day long.

What qualifies me to receive God's guidance?

- He guides the humble in what is right and teaches them His way. Psalms 25:9
- God opposes the proud but give grace to the humble. James 4:6
- ...broken & contrite heart O God, You will not despise. Psalms 51:17

What qualifies me to receive God's guidance?

- But I am poor & needy; yet the LORD thinks upon me. You are my help & deliverer. Psalms 40:17 (NKJV)
- For I know the thoughts that I think towards you, thoughts of peace and not of evil, to give you a future & hope. You will seek Me and find Me when you search for Me with all heart. I will be found by you... Jeremiah 29:11,13 (NKJV)
