We are more than conquerors

Romans 8:31-39

31 What, then, shall we say in response to these things?

If God is for us, who can be against us?

32 He who did not spare his own Son, but gave him up for us all – how will he not also, along with him, graciously give us all things?

35 Who shall separate us from the love of Christ?
Shall trouble or hardship or persecution or famine or nakedness or danger or sword? ... 37 No,
in all these things we are more than conquerors
through him who loved us.

The Holy Spirit imparts power, love, and a sound mind.

2 Timothy 1:7

For God has not given us a spirit of fear, but of power and of love and of a sound mind.

Psalm 27:4, 8.

*One thing I ask from the LORD, this only do I seek:
that I may dwell in the house of the LORD
all the days of my life, to gaze on the beauty of the LORD and to seek him in his temple.
My heart says of you, 'Seek his face!'
Your face, LORD, I will seek.*

Great hope in times of suffering

Roman 5:3-5

“Not only so, but we rejoice in our sufferings, because we know that suffering produces perseverance, perseverance, character, and character, hope.

And hope does not disappoint us, because God has poured out his love into our hearts by the Holy Spirit whom he has been given us,”
