

SERMON NOTE: The Legacy of Faith

By: Rev Gan Kim Choon

Bible Ref: Exodus 2:1-10 NIV

Now a man of the tribe of Levi married a Levite woman, and she became pregnant and gave birth to a son. When she saw that he was a fine child, she hid him for three months. But when she could hide him no longer, she got a papyrus basket for him and coated it with tar and pitch. Then she placed the child in it and put it among the reeds along the bank of the Nile. His sister stood at a distance to see what would happen to him. Then Pharaoh's daughter went down to the Nile to bathe, and her attendants were walking along the riverbank. She saw the basket among the reeds and sent her female slave to get it. She opened it and saw the baby. He was crying, and she felt sorry for him. "This is one of the Hebrew babies," she said. Then his sister asked Pharaoh's daughter, "Shall I go and get one of the Hebrew women to nurse the baby for you?" "Yes, go," she answered. So the girl went and got the baby's mother. Pharaoh's daughter said to her, "Take this baby and nurse him for me, and I will pay you." So the woman took the baby and nursed him. When the child grew older, she took him to Pharaoh's daughter and he became her son. She named him Moses, saying, "I drew him out of the water."

Hebrews 11:23-28 NIV

By faith Moses' parents hid him for three months after he was born, because they saw he was no ordinary child, and they were not afraid of the king's edict. By faith Moses, when he had grown up, refused to be known as the son of Pharaoh's daughter. He chose to be mistreated along with the people of God rather than to enjoy the fleeting pleasures of sin. He regarded disgrace for the sake of Christ as of greater value than the treasures of Egypt, because he was looking ahead to his reward. By faith he left Egypt, not fearing the king's anger; he persevered because he saw him who is invisible. By faith he kept the Passover and the application of blood, so that the destroyer of the firstborn would not touch the firstborn of Israel.

Happy Mother's Day

Pastor recommended to watch 2 movies:

The King of Egypt worried of the numerous Israelites and base them slave

And ordered midwives to throw all Israelites babies into Nile River

Reverse the order of last 2 pics

So though we have not seen JESUS and GOD, we can trust, because we knew HE exist.

Can a young boy maybe 4 years old possibly knows enough to drive Moses to forego his wealth and comfort, but trust that GOD is there and he should do the right thing for GOD'S people?

How did Moses knew?

Children in Church Sunday school? If You have young kids, do send them to Sunday school.

That was Moses's mother, what about us?

The Legacy of Faith

What would we like to leave behind?

Pastor remembered his mom made the best meat Ball.

Or shall we think of leaving something of eternal value?

Maybe use the pic iPhone.

Monica never stop praying for her son to turn to GOD.

Walk by Faith
